UPDATED Cost of Living (Tenant Protection) (Scotland) Bill 2022 (Scotland)  Find out more	This imposes a temporary cap on the majority of residential rent increases. It has been set at 0% until 31st March 2023. Landlords can apply to the Rent Service Scotland to increase rents (by a maximum of 3%) if their costs have risen. There is also a moratorium on evictions except in a limited number of circumstances until 30th September 2023 and an increase in the damages which can be awarded in cases of unlawful eviction. NB The increased protection for private rented tenants facing evictions during the pandemic has been made permanent by the Coronavirus (Recovery and Reform) (Scotland) Act 2022. The Bill removed the mandatory grounds for a landlord to evict a tenant and reclaim vacant possession for non-payment of rent amongst other changes.	With retrospective effect from 6th September 2022. The legislation is being challenged through judicial review by a group of landlords associations.	Review all tenancies to ensure none have had rent increases since September.
Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (Licensing of Short-term Lets) Order 2022 (Scotland) 	Scottish landlords letting property on short-term lets (e.g., Air BNB) now require a local authority licence. This covers home letting and home sharing.	With effect from 1st October 2022.	Ensure all landlords who let properties this way are registered.
